

Expression of Interest for Consultant Farrier Trainer position

Job Title- Consultant Training Farrier

Location: Asia, Africa & Latin America

Contract type: Consultant

Contract hours: Training visits range between 10-12 days with 1 day prep and 1 day wrap up in the London office.

Day Rate: £250 per day + expenses

The Role

We are looking for someone with a passion for training farriers to support our dedicated global farriery project. The aim of this project is to improve the welfare of working equids by supporting sustainable improvements within the industry across the globe. This consultant role is to teach, train and mentor a selected pool of farriers across Africa, Asia and Latin America. The goal is to develop these selected farriers into competent farrier trainers through a sustainable 'trainer of trainers' approach.

Criteria

You should have a specific interest or experience in training and mentoring of farriers. You should have a practical approach to problem solving in a low resource setting. You should be confident in building technical farriery skills and professionalism in others and most importantly, you should be passionate about bringing about lasting improvements to animal welfare.

To find out more.

Brooke will be hosting an Open Farrier afternoon on Tuesday 18th June from 1.30pm onwards at Brooke's London office, Friars Bridge Court, 41-45 Blackfriars Rd, South Bank, London SE1 8NZ.

We invite you to come and hear more about our Global Farriery Project and meet the team.

Further information please contact Alex Ridgeway alex.ridgeway@thebrooke.org and to find out more about Brooke please visit www.thebrooke.org

The Brooke is an equal opportunities employer